

3. If I get money, I shall buy a bicycle.
4. If my father arrives tomorrow, I shall leave for Bundibujjo.
5. If that man finds dirt on his shirt, he will complain.
6. If she is going to school now, she will reach there late.
7. If you reach school late, the teacher will punish you.
8. If he takes Uganda Waragi, he will get drunk.
9. If she passes Primary Seven, she will join senior one.
10. If they have blind eyes, they will not see anything.

EXERCISE 63

- | | |
|--------------------------------|------------------|
| 1. will buy | 6. shall push |
| 2. gets | 7. will expel |
| 3. shall be | 8. will finish |
| 4. will swing | 9. shall deliver |
| 5. has remembered or remembers | 10. will pass |

EXERCISE 64

1. If Isabirye had two heads, he would be able to see both behind and in front.
2. If Agenonga were my father, I would wear suits only.
3. If all water dried up tomorrow, all living things would die at once.
4. If I was a president, I would put Uganda at peace.
5. If Mondo were a snake, he would bite all the women.
6. If Ssembarirwa was a candidate, he would get a distinction in Maths.
7. If her head was loose, she would forget all what she learns at school.
8. If I went to town next week, I would scratch for cash.
9. If the sun were not to rise tomorrow, we would sleep endlessly.
10. If he were a camel, he would not live in a desert.

EXERCISE 65

- | | |
|-------------------------|-------------------------|
| 1. seen | 6. didn't |
| 2. carried | 7. walked |
| 3. had | 8. had |
| 4. would score | 9. would repeat |
| 5. wouldn't be arrested | 10. couldn't / wouldn't |