

EXERCISE 66

1. If I had passed to the next class, my parents would have made for me a party.
2. If Kasoma had seen him yesterday, he would have told him the whole story.
3. If we had sung the song well, we would have received prizes.
4. If they had sought the kingdom of God, they would have got it.
5. If Joseph hadn't torn the shirt, he wouldn't have been punished.
6. If Kabasomi had read the book well, she would have been promoted to P. 4.
7. If the lesson had begun, we wouldn't have studied it.
8. If this book had not been spoilt, they would have used it next year.
9. If you had not asked for permission from our parents, we would not have come for the party .
10. If the bees stung me, I would not have gone back to fetch water.

EXERCISE 67

- | | |
|-----------------------------|-----------------------|
| 1. had hidden | 6. wouldn't have had |
| 2. would have had | 7. hadn't swung |
| 3. had mended | 8. had had |
| 4. would not have been lost | 9. wouldn't have swum |
| 5. had got | 10. had had |

EXERCISE 68

1. If Tom had not come late, he wouldn't have missed the train.
OR If Tom had come early, he wouldn't have missed the train.
2. If my brother became rich next week, he would build a bank in Kampala.
3. If you move at night, thieves will kill you.
OR If you don't move at night, thieves won't kill you.
4. If he had worked very hard last year, he would have got a first grade.
5. If Kakaikuru were a green lion, she would eat all people on this earth.
6. If Acero speaks good English, she will become a prefect next year.
7. If that man had not helped you, you wouldn't have reached where you had been going.
8. If I was with a book, I would do this homework now.
9. If we get first grades, we shall join Budo S.S.S.
10. If the policeman had know about my trouble, they would have helped me.
11. If I were your father, I would pay your school fees and buy you books.