

EXERCISE 13

1.
  - a) The girl was poor but she had five dresses
  - b) Although the girl was poor, she had five dresses.
  - c) The girl was poor although she had five dresses.
2.
  - a) The boy reads very hard but he is ever the last in class.
  - b) Although the boy reads very hard, he is ever the last in class.
  - c) The boy reads hard although he is ever the last in class.
3.
  - a) Kalibbala is a very intelligent boy but he is very shabby.
  - b) Although Kalibbala is a very shabby boy, he is ever the last in class.
  - c) Kalibbala is a very intelligent boy although he is very shabby.
4.
  - a) Nassali is a polite girl but the teacher beats her severely.
  - b) Although the teacher beats Nassali severely, she is a polite girl.
  - c) Nassali is a polite girl although the teacher beats her severely.
5.
  - a) Naluyima is very clever but she is not kind.
  - b) Although Naluyima is very clever, she is not kind.
  - c) Naluyima is very clever although she is not kind.
6.
  - a) It was raining but the children continued to play.
  - b) Although it was raining, the children continued to play.
  - c) . It was raining although the. children continued to play.
7.
  - a) The woman was afraid of the snake but she did not show it.
  - b) Although the woman was afraid of the snake, she did not show it.
  - c) The woman was afraid of the snake although she did not show it.
8.
  - a) Musa directed me very well but I didn't see the factory.
  - b) Although Musa directed me very well, I did not see the factory.
  - c) Musa directed me very well although I didn't see the factory.
9.
  - a) Lukia had a broken arm but she wrote well in the examinations.
  - b) Although Lukia had a broken arm, she wrote well in the examinations.

- c) Lukia had a broken arm although she wrote well in the examinations.
10. a) Musitwa is a quiet boy but he reads very clearly in the class.
- b) Although Musitwa is a quiet boy in the class, he reads very clearly.
- c) Musitwa is a quiet boy although he reads very clearly in the class.

EXERCISE 14

1. a) The sack of coffee is heavy although the sack of cotton is light,
b) The sack of coffee is heavy but the sack of cotton is light.
2. a) The girl is old although the boy is young,
b) The girl is old but the boy is young.
3. a) This exercise is easy although that exercise is difficult,
b) This exercise is easy but that exercise is difficult.
4. a) Your mother is fat although your father is thin,
b) Your mother is fat but your father is thin.
5. a) That shirt is new although that pair of trousers is old.
b) That shirt is new but that pair of trousers is old.
6. a) The accuser is guilty although the accused is innocent,
b) The accuser is guilty but the accused is innocent.
7. a) The teacher is smart although the pupil is shabby,
b) The teacher is smart but the pupil is shabby.
8. a) Our church is modern although yours is ancient,
b) Our church is modern but yours is ancient.
9. a) New clothes are expensive although second hand ones are cheap,
b) New clothes are expensive but second hand ones are cheap.
10. a) Joseph drew a straight line on the blackboard although Andrew drew a crooked one on the floor.
b) Joseph drew a straight line on the blackboard but Andrew drew a crooked one on the floor.