Exercise 47

Okoth went to the other side of the town to visit his aunt and cousins. They live beside the river on Channel Street. During the journey, in the a bus which travelled around the town, Okoth gazed at the busy streets. The traffic came from all the directions, one car behind another, until they reached the quieter roads outside the town. He then left the bus and walked over the bridge across the river. He stopped on the bridge, watching the boats on the river below.
