

Answers to sentence order

Exercise 1

1. When every school term is about to begin.
2. Our father advises us on what to do to get good marks.
3. He begins by telling us to be very attentive to our teachers during lessons.
4. He also reminds us to think about why we go to school.
5. Finally he tells us to revise our books seriously before doing examinations.
6. However, at school, there are various activities which make us fail to do what our father tells us.
7. One of them is the music club which takes place during revision time and we can't miss it.
8. The other is swimming which no child in school can miss.
9. What can we do to take our father's advice?
10. I think it is better to have a timetable for activities.

Exercise 2

1. All countries in the world have different education systems.
2. Some systems are very easy while others are very hard.
3. But Uganda has been noted to have the hardest system.
4. In Uganda, primary education lasts for seven years.
5. And secondary education takes six years.
6. At university, the period depends on the course one takes but it is always between 3-6 years.
7. This means that one has to spend nineteen years before becoming a professional.
8. But for some professions like law, you have to study for another year before you can get a job.
9. That means that to become a lawyer, you must study for twenty years.
10. Yet in other countries, it is far less than twenty years.

Exercise 3

1. My birthday is on 24th February every year.
2. This year's birthday was quite unique.
3. On this day, my father asked my family and I to go to Bulamu restaurant.
4. It is the best restaurant in our town.
5. When we reached the restaurant, I was the first to order.
6. I ordered for chips and chicken.
7. The rest of the family members ordered for either matooke and beef or chips and rice.
8. After the meal, we started our journey back home.
9. It was my first time to have dinner at a restaurant.
10. What a fantastic birthday it was!